ASSOCIATED CHARITIES.

Much Interest Displayed, Many Contributions Received, and Work Promised.

The second annual meeting of the Associated Charities of the District of Columbia was held at Foundry church last evening. The meeting was called to order by District Commissioner Edmonds, who proceeded to explain the general features of the organization, and the work which it had done and which it was expected to do. Prayer was then offered by Rev. W. F. Ward.

The report of the general secretary, L. S. Emery, esq., was then read. The report gave a review of the operations of the society for the past two years, and showed that the district was divided into eighteen subdivisions, only fourteen of which, however, have been actively organized. A tabular statement was included, which showed that 1,303 families had been aided, 967 persons aided, 405 persons found employment, transportation furnished to 58; amount of money contributed, $5,954.37; amount expended, $5,778.18; balance on hand, $176.19; total membership, 1,147.

Commissioner Edmonds then introduced Rev. Wm. A. Bartlett, of the New York Avenue Presbyterian church, who delivered the annual address.

The president then announced that the following contributions had been handed him: Benevolent Society of Mount Vernon seminary, $34; Lausburgh & Bro., $10.

The treasurer, M. G. Emery, esq., then reported that the amount received by him during the year was $2,244.81; expended, $2,127.32.

Mrs. Martha A. Snell then read a paper, by Rev. W. F. Ward.

Mrs. Martha A. Snell then read a paper, which generally reviewed the work of the Associated Charities in the large cities of the country, and extracted from the experience of these organizations many suggestions which were commended to the district society. This paper was published in THE REPUBLICAN some time since. Mrs. Sara A. Spencer, who was a delegate to the tenth annual conference of the National Association of Charities recently held at Louisville, by the read a paper superior the contraction of the paper superior the second Ky., then read a paper embodying the con-clusions arrived at by this convention, and a resume of the expressions of some of the most experienced of those who were among the dele-gates to this convention, and who were emi-nent workers in the cause of charity.

gates to this convention, and who were eminent workers in the cause of charity.

The next business in order was the election of officers, and Mr. A. S. Solomons took the floor, and said that it was highly essential that proper persons should be selected to fill these positions. The present incumbents had been very efficient, so much so that some friction had been produced, and this he regarded as a good sign. Without invidious distinction, he felt constrained to call attention to the good work of the present secretary of the association, Mr. L. S. Emery, and Mrs. Walling, of Massachusetts, who had rendered great service. The friction alluded to had engendered some little ill feeling, but he hoped that, in view of the hearty co-operation required to make the work successful, all would defer to the good of the cause. The election of secretary was then proceeded with, and Mr. L. S. Emery was nominated by Col. Enoch Totten. Mrs. Sara A. Spencer then took the floor, and said she desired a freedom of expression which could only be found in the ballet and she therefore nominated took the floor, and said she desired a freedom of expression which could only be found in the ballot, and she therefore nominated Mr. Robert Kinsell fer the position of secretary. A motion followed that the election be by ballot, and this was supplemented by a motion to lay this upon the table. This latter motion prevailed, and the question recurred upon the motion that Mr. Solomons should cast the ballot of the society for Mr. I. S. Emery, which was carried.

should cast the ballot of the society for Mr.

I. S. Emery, which was carried.

M. G. Emery, esq., was then nominated for treasurer. Mrs. Spencer said this was the first time they had had the honor of seeing his face for eighteen months, and she felt like having an expression of opinion, and would hominate Mr. A. S. Pratt. Mr. Bell followed with some further remarks, and was called to order for some personal allusions. Mr. Pratt then declined the nomination, and Mr. Solomons was authorized to cast the vote of the association for the Hon. M. G. Emery.

The old board of directors were then reelected, except in the case of L. S. Emery, who was ex-officio a member of the board, and the name of Mrs. Martha A. Suell was substituted. After the adoption of some amendtuted. After the adoption of some amend-ments to the constitution calculated to in-sure a better working of the machinery of the association the meeting adjourned.

The officers of the association for the en-suing year are as follows: President, Hon. J. B. Edmonds; general secretary, L. S. Emery; treasurer, Hon. M. G. Emery; board of treasurer, Hon. M. G. Emery; beard of minagers, Hon. J. B. Edmonds, commissioner of the district; Hon. John Eaton, commis-sioner of education; Maj. William G. Brock, ex-superintendent of police; Dr. Smith Town-

Elected members of the board—A. S. Solomens, Rev. William A. Bartlett, John T. Mitchell, A. M. Gangewer, Dr. R. B. Donaldson, Hon. M. G. Emery, John F. Cook, E. B. Baraum, A. S. Pratt, B. Pickman Mann, Thomas J. Lasier, Mrs. A. L. Barber, Mrs. Sara A. Spencer, Rev. Dr. Wyncoop, C. E. Foster, and Mrs. Martha A. Snell. Also, one representative from each subdivision and recognized co-operating organizations.

Just previous to the adjournment notice was given that sandry amendments to the constitution would be submitted at the next annual meeting. During the course of the annual meeting. During the course of the proceedings several exquisite soles were ren-dered by Mrs. Nellie S. McCartee.

THE Famous Orator.

The Wolf Tone Club's Ball. The Wolf Tone club gave its first grand ball last evening at Abner's hall, and the attendance was very large. The hall was beautifully decorated with flags and bunting, while flowers and potted plants added their attractions. The costumes of many of the ladies were very elaborate, and the entire company was one of the pleasantest that has been gathered together thus far this season.

Mr. James Plant was the master of coromonies, Mr. M. B. Flynn, the ballet master, and Mr. W. F. McAllister his assistant. To these gentlemen, and those who composed the committees, was the success of the entertainment principally due. The committees were ment principally due. The committees were as follows: Floor (white rosettes), O. Lanaghan, E. Lynch, J. P. Glancy, P. Kennedy; committee of arrangements, J. Kelly (chairman), J. Butler, W. F. McAllister, J. P. Glancy, M. B. Flynn, O. Lanahan, M. Duffey, P. Kennedy: recention, committee M. B.

Glancy, M. S. Flynn, O. Lanahan, M. Duffey, P. Kennedy; reception committee, M. B. Flynn, J. Daley, O. Lanaghan, G. Lynn, W. F. McAllister.

Among the ladies present were Misses Wilson, Alice Plant, Mary and Maggie Flynn, Gehan, Norris, Mrs. McCreary, Mr. and Mrs. McAllister, Miss Oates, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hoover, Miss May Hely, Mr. and Mrs. James Carroll, Misses Annie and Bertie Malley, and Miss Annie Brown. Miss Annie Brown.

The Hookbinders' Union. The Bookbinders' union of Washington held a large and enthusiastic meeting last evening at Co-operative hall, 1023 Seventh street northwest. They were waited upon by a committee from Columbia Typographical union, who laid their case before them, requesting action on their part looking to the successful "boycotting" of the Washington Post. The following resolution was adopted unanimously, with a request for publication in THE REPUBLICAN:

In the Kepublican:

Resolved, That the Bookbinders' society, being in hearly sympathy with the Typographical union in their fight with the Post, requests its members to stop their subscriptions to the Post, and that they endeavor to influence their friends from buying or advertising in said paper.

EQUITABLE CO-OPERATIVE BUILD-ING ASSOCIATION.

The Fourth Annual Report and New Stock.

The report of the Equitable furnished by the secretary, John Joy Edson, for the fourth year ending Oct. 15, 1883, makes an excellent showing. The report of Thomas Somerville, the secretary, John Joy Edson, for the fourth year ending Oct. 15, 1883, makes an excellent showing. The report of Thomas Somerville, president, says that—

The association the past year has met with steady and substantial prospectiv. The transactions have been large and the results exceedingly satisfactory. The conduct of the association has continued to be conservative, and has succeeded in practically earlying out the object for which it was organized, viz to encourage monthly savings, with fair and sure profits, and to make advances to buy homes and other property at reasonable rates of interest and upon advantageous terms.

From the secretary's roport will be seen that the receipts and disbursements for the year ending of the same time were $175.500, while the settlements were $50,100. The advances now outstanding are $344.900, ses repayments, which are held by $230 members. The average to each member has been $1,175. The assets are $224.60.2, laving increased in one year $100,455.06. When we consider that this is the accumulation of small regular monthly savings of the members, it cannot the felicit favorable comment.

The number of shares on the rolls at the end of the first year were $1,203. It is second year, 2,208, the third year, 2,925.4; and this year, 5,453.7. The value of a share in the different issues will show the earnings to be a fraction over 6 per cent. The average rate of promiums on advances outstanding is 67 per cent, which shows that the advances are made at a uniform and moderate rate. In this connection I cannot do better than quote from the second annual report of our former president, Mr. Saville:

"It is believed that this condition is a very desirable one in the interest of afety. Where the premiums average a high rate the burthen of the borrower must of necessity be onerous, and many thereby become disheariened and fall in their payments. With premiums at moderate rate. In this connection I cannot do better than quot from the second annual report of our former president, Mr. Savil agement of the affairs of the association.

The board of directors have again authorized a new issue of stock, and the books are open for subscriptions. The first payment is due in November, and can be paid at the meeting this Wednesday evening at Marini's hall, or at the office of the secretary, John Joy Edson, 917 F street, northwest.
